

Thank you for your recent email inquiry on wire transferring the funds to CIBC Mortgages for mortgage payouts. We usually do not accept the wire-transfer for mortgage payout purpose. However, given the COVID-19 situation, we are extending/modifying our services to help our clients and partners in this challenging situation.

We have put together a process in place which provides solicitors/law firms the ability to wire transfer funds to CIBC Mortgages through any Canadian bank. When ready to send the funds, kindly refer to the following wire transfer instructions and include all the mandatory information:
